CITIZENSHIP 9

BI-WEEKLY BULLETIN

Dear Students and families,

Thanks to everyone for your efforts in the first round of at-home learning! I was really excited to read what everyone had to share and hope to continue the conversations we have started around privilege, community, and activism.

Please take a moment to reflect on the image I've shared on this page. Your well-being is most important to the Bayview staff and each piece is important for you to find happiness and feel accomplished. Student achievement and well-being are intertwined and it is important to recognize that we need a bit from each piece.

We continue to be in a strange place in education. I recognize that it has been difficult for some to adjust to this new format and will continue to provide formative feedback and insight into your answers and insights to help you better understand the topics we are exploring!

Find attached your plan for the coming two weeks along with some guidance on how long each section may take.

Stay Safe and stay in touch!
